Dear colleagues,

The commission “Peripheral cities” of CGLU invites you to take part, on December 5th 2012, from 9h30 to 12h to its annual meeting which will be held within the framework of the World Council of CGLU in Dakar (Senegal). This meeting will take place in “sale des deliberations” of the city hall of Pikine in the periphery of Dakar. (the transport between Dakar and Pikine will be ensured by bus by the organization).

This meeting will aim to prepare the next stages of our activity and particularly organization of the next congress of the Peripheral Local Authorities Forum in Canoas (Brazil) in June 2013 and which will have as a subject the “Rights and Democracy for interdependent and durable Metropolises”.

This meeting will also make it possible to build collectively the lines of work for the next period in particular of the next congress of CGLU in October 2013 in Rabat (Morocco)

You will find below the documents following:

- Agenda of the meeting
- Activities 2012 of the commission

While hoping to be able to count on your participation, the secretariat of the commission remains at your disposal for all additional information.
