About United Cities and Local Governments

The united voice and world advocate of democratic local self-government

Additional information may be found at www.uclg.org

Founded in May 2004, United Cities and Local Governments (UCLG) is the united voice and world advocate of democratic local self-government. Based in Barcelona, UCLG is the largest local government organisation in the world.

The cities and associations that are members of UCLG represent over half of the world's population and are present in 136 UN Member States across seven world regions – Africa, Asia-Pacific, Europe, Eurasia, the Middle East and West Asia, Latin America and North America. Over 1000 cities are direct members of United Cities and Local Governments, as are 112 national associations, which represent all the cities and local governments in their respective countries.

UCLG's stated mission is:

To be the united voice and world advocate of democratic local self-government, promoting its values, objectives and interests through cooperation between local governments, and within the wider international community.

UCLG's work programme aims to:

- Increase the role and influence of United Cities and Local Governments in global governance;
- Become the main source of support for democratic, effective, innovative local government that is close to the citizen;
- Ensure an effective and democratic global organisation.

These working axes enable UCLG and the local governments it represents to play a key role in the achievement of the United Nations Millennium Development Goals.
