As part of the Mediterranean City to City Migration Project (MC2CM), we will be conducting a series of Webinars to dedicated issues surrounding migration at the city level.

The webinar will discuss the phenomena of discrimination in the housing market, covering what this type of discrimination looks like (what are the acts/situations that define discrimination in this sector), its causes, consequences and best practices in order to combat the issue from both a legislation stand point and civil society/ social institutions. The webinar will include guest speakers in this field.

Please join us by clicking on the link in this flier.
